

Brexit and the General Election

Next month's General Election, each party's policies, the possible result of the vote and what the impact could be on the Brexit process will be discussed by a panel of experts at the next Brexit Breakfast.

Our Brexit Breakfast events have returned for 2019, offering attendees the opportunity to discuss Brexit and how it will impact them and their industry, as well as the chance to network with other business professionals, and enjoy breakfast and refreshments before starting the working day.

Our next Brexit Breakfast will discuss December's General Election. Our panel will discuss the Election, as well as each political party's policies, the possible result of the election in the West Midlands region, the impact on the Brexit process and what we can expect from politics in 2020.

Join us on Friday 6 December, 8am-10am, for an insightful and interesting discussion with our panel members. The panel will be hosted by Professor Alex de Ruyter, Director at the Centre for Brexit Studies.

Panel members:

Hosted by Professor Alex de Ruyter, Director at the Centre for Brexit Studies.

Dr Ellie Chowns MEP – Green Party Member of the European Parliament for the West Midlands region and Parliamentary Candidate for North Herefordshire.

Adrian Bailey – Former Labour MP for West Bromwich West.

Aaron Hudson – Pro-Brexit Independent Parliamentary Candidate for Stourbridge.

David Craddock – Chair of the West Midlands Liberal Democrats.

Annette Willcox – Brexit Party Candidate for Birmingham Perry Barr.

A wide selection of breakfast options alongside refreshments will be available for you to enjoy at the event.

This event is FREE to attend but registration is needed here.

To share your thoughts on social media, use the hashtag:
#CBSElection

We look forward to seeing you there!

Register for free tickets here!